The Eagle & Ball was originally built in the 1840's, promising the residents of Birmingham good ale, good times and an array of musical entertainment.

Over 175 years later, not much has changed, as we are now proud to serve the students and staff of Birmingham City University, as well as the residents of Birmingham, once more promising them good ale, entertainment and good times, in our own little piece of Birmingham history. Now a Grade II listed building, The Eagle & Ball has been lovingly restored and revived, ready for a whole new generation to enjoy.
